

Emily Coombs

Head of Contract Recruitment

About me

I head the ERP and Systems Implementation division specializing in digital transformation. I recruit from enterprise level down to start-ups. I am currently working with some of the largest companies across retail, FMCG, and pharmaceutical sectors.

I have placed talent at all levels, from Program Directors to Technical Consultants. Our contractors average over four years tenure, with expertise in ERP, Order Management, PLM, and Global Business Solutions. This commitment to quality and service is why our clients choose to partner with us.
